

Jacqueline Chavez (she/ella) is an advocate for educational equity currently working as an Accountability and Dissemination Specialist at the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. Prior to this role, she worked as a kindergarten teacher and onboarding coordinator for first-year teachers in Miami-Dade, Florida. Jacqueline holds a Bachelor's degree from the University of Florida in political science and international relations and a Master's degree from the University of Miami in education policy. Jacqueline also serves as board member on SEIU Local 509 Committee on Political Education and ran to become the first person of color on the Revere School Committee in 2021. Jacqueline's favorite childhood books are the Harry Potter series by J.K. Rowling.