

Jody Trinchet graduated from Lehigh University with a degree in accounting and is a former cost accountant. She has two children, a college and a high school student, and resides in Hingham, MA. Jody is a board member of South Shore SNAP (Special Needs Athletic Partnership) as well as The Accord School in Norwell, MA. Jody enjoys reading, needlepointing and traveling with her family. Her favorite books growing up were Night Noises by Laverne Johnson and Where the Sidewalk Ends by Shel Silverstein.