

Judi Seldin is currently the Assistant Head of School at the Carroll School, a school for students with language-based learning differences such as dyslexia. Judi works closely with the Board of Trustees and oversees operations including strategy, finance, human resources, information technology and facilities. Before finding her passion for educational administration, Judi worked in the private sector in both large and start-up companies. Judi's volunteer work has focused on political campaign field operations with several stints outside of New England states. Judi's favorite books as a child were Harriet the Spy by Louise Fitzhugh and Encyclopedia Brown by Donald Sobel.
